- BrianBlackburn offered to donate his entire collection of old computers to Gumbo Labs. if we want to sell stuff on ebay to general money for Gumbo Labs, that's okay. Or we may want to use them for projects. Or we may want to give them to a computer museum or something. we're interested in taking on the task. ChrisKlarmann is willing to be a main organizer
- BrianBlackburn doesn't have Cox and is willing to put the Cox internet account in his name, Simon and Brian will get together and order Cox internet
